Winning Entries and Show Attendees

Third Annual Recycled Art Show

Plymouth, WI, April 27, 2014 – Masters Gallery Foods, joined by Habitat for Humanity Lakeside, celebrated its third annual recycled art show April 25 through April 27, 2014 at the Plymouth Arts Center. The show, which has grown in popularity and size over the last three years, featured recycled art created by adult artists and students ranging from first grade to high school.

“We’ve made great strides in our recycling efforts over the last several years,” said Linda Mueller, Chairperson for the Masters Gallery Foods Green Team. “Events like this allow us to share our excitement about recycling. It’s been fun to see the thought and creativity involved in repurposing, recycling and reusing items into works of art.”

Nearly 100 visitors attended the show to vote for their favorite works of art, and entries with the most votes in each of the four categories received a $100 cash prize. Winning artists were Sheboygan Leadership Academy (first grade class), Riverview Middle School (eighth grade science class), Connor McCabe (St. Lawrence Seminary High School) and Susan Danforth.
